FOL is an independent all-volunteer community organization begun in 1959 to contribute to the cultural environment of Oak Ridge and surrounding communities through support of the Oak Ridge Public Library. FOL conducts the Children's Summer Program, sponsors a monthly Book Discussion Group and occasional book signings by local authors, provides funds for special publications, equipment, and supplies not covered by the Library's budget, and performs other services requested by the Library Director. Funds are raised through memberships, the sale of books and other publications, and donations. In addition to supporting these activities, membership provides free admission on the Members Only Book Sale evenings.

FOL is a 501(c)(3) organization. Our mailing list is not provided to third parties.
