

You're Invited!

Join Kairos Power for an update on the Hermes low-power demonstration reactor planned for Heritage Center. Building on Oak Ridge's long nuclear legacy, Kairos Power is making significant investments to support construction of Hermes and ongoing operations in the region. Meet our team and learn how we're leveraging proven technologies to enable the world's transition to clean energy, improve quality of life, and protect the environment.

Register for the Hermes Update:
kairospower.consultation.ai

Opportunity for Public Comments

The NRC staff is seeking public input on their draft Environmental Impact Statement for the Hermes Construction Permit Application.

The NRC will hold a hybrid public meeting on Nov. 16 from 7–9 p.m. ET at the Hilton DoubleTree in Oak Ridge and online. Full meeting details will be published on Nov. 1 at nrc.gov/reactors/non-power/hermes-kairos.html

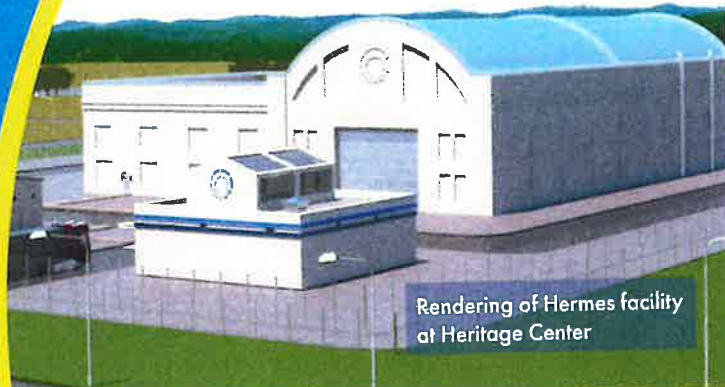

Public comments may be submitted to KairosHermes-CPEIS@nrc.gov

Hermes Update

Creating value in Oak Ridge and advancing our mission to enable the world's transition to clean energy

- Date: Thursday, Nov. 3
- Time: 5–6 p.m. ET
- Format: Zoom Webinar

Rendering of Hermes facility at Heritage Center

Hermes is a joint effort by Kairos Power and our partners:

