

In celebration of NATIONAL LIBRARY WEEK,

Oak Ridge Public Library will be offering:

“Ruff Reading Away Your Fines”

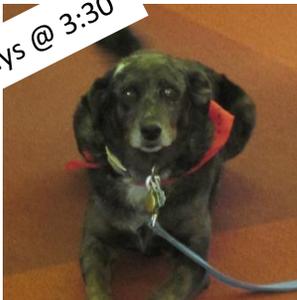

April 01 to April 30, 2016

Our wonderful Ruff Reading dogs are eager listeners. They’re always up for a good story and would love to help any child wishing to read away fines.

How does it work?

- If you would like to read to a dog, register with Ms. Michaela for one of the times listed below
- All reading must be done in the Children’s Room
- Reading time will be monitored and a record will be kept
- For each thirty minutes of attentive reading you can reduce your fines by $1.00!

Pookie – Tuesdays @ 3:30

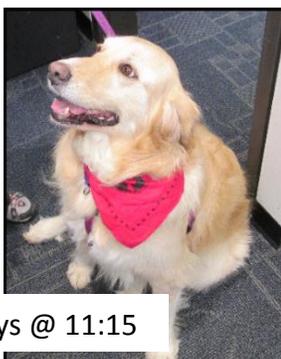

Mac – Tuesdays @ 11:15
& Wednesdays @ 2:00

Macaroni – every other Monday @ 6:00

Jodi – Mondays @ 11:15

H.A.B.I.T. is a community group of volunteers working together to explore the circumstances and consequences of the human-animal bond and to promote this valuable bond between people and animals.

Riley – Thursdays @ 3:30

Please note: Only kids under the age of 18 can participate.
Only overdue fines for materials already returned can be cleared.
Lost or damaged item fines are not eligible.
